Oceana's annual SeaChange gala in Laguna Beach

Hollywood A-listers Josh Brolin (who's a longtime surfer) and Diane Lane (who's an environmental activist) headlined an all-star cast of guests who helped Oceana raise an impressive $900,000 from its annual SeaChange gala, held this year at a spectacular coastal villa in Laguna Beach. Adding to the star power: Ted Danson and Angela Kinsey, who hosted the event, which was chaired by party power-hitters Eve Kornyei and Valarie Van Cleave. The money raised will fund the nonprofit's endeavors to protect the world's oceans and all the creatures that dwell in them. Back on solid ground, guests enjoyed a sit-down dinner and dancing under a sea of stars. —Tina Borgatta
