OCEAN AFFAIR

Thanks to Eve Kornyei and co-chair Valarie Whiting, the celeb-heavy SeaChange soirée at the Cahill estate included an ingredient missing from the event's first two years: fun! Now, saving the world's oceans is serious business, and Oceana's mission is urgent; the evening raised $1 million for its work. But the idea that O.C. society should swoon at a glimpse of Pierce Brosnan and his brethren is just so... L.A. of them. Or so we were thinking. Then, after the auction and speeches, Oscar winner Jeff Bridges walked onstage, guitar in hand, to sing songs from Crazy Heart. And dude, we were totally blown away. —Kedric Francis
